The Sun will be on hand at the beginning and until the end of the most interesting and important political conflict since the war, doing its honest utmost, as ever, to secure the triumph of the Bemocratic party and the pernament supremncy of the principles held by Jofferson, Jackson and Tilden.

The great fact of the year is the return to also love the power of the common enemy of all good Democrats—the political organization for whose overtirow The Sun fought at the front for fifteen years, the memorable years of Grant and the Fraud Hayes, and Garfield and Arthur.

It is the same old enemy that Democrats now confront, and he will be intrenched in the same attorn position. It has been carried some her position. It has been carried means, with many hundreds of illustrations of excellent quality. Every line in the paper is subjected to the most rigid editorial scrutiny, in order that nothing harmful may enter its columns. Democratic president in 1892 should begin on or

The hope of the Democracy is in the loyal efforts of a united press, cherising no memories of past differences in non-essentials, forgetting everything but the lessons of experience, and that victory is a duty.

Probably you know The Sun already as a newspaper which gets all the news and prints it in incomparably interesting shape: which chronicles facts as they occur and tells the truth about men and even with absolute fearlessness, making the completest and most entertaining journal published anywhere on earth; and which sells its opinions only to its subscribers and purchasers at two cents a copy—on Sundays four cents. HISTORICAL. Santa Fe, the city of the Holy Faith of St. Francis, is the capital of New Mexico, trade center, sanitary, archepiscopal see, and district military headquarters. It is the oldest seat of civil and religious government on American soil. When Cabeza de Baca penetrated the valley of the Rio Grande in 1538 he found Santa Fe a flourishing pueblo village. The history of its first European settlement was lost, with most of the early records of the territory, by the destruction of all the archives in 1680; but the earliest mention of it shows it then to have been the capital and the center of commerce, capital and the center of commerce, authority and influence.
